

MUSICAL PROGRAM ENJOYED BY TWO HUNDRED ELKS

First of Series of Summer
Entertainments at Club
Home a Big Success.

While the summer breezes blew coolly through the west court at the Elks club Thursday night the local lodge entertained its members and visiting Elks at its first summer entertainment of the season. The program, which was musical for the greater part was enjoyed by about 200 members.

Most notable among the amusement features was a burlesque statue act by E. A. Brown and F. A. Raynor who depicted some of the actions of members of the local lodge and closed their program with an illustration of the big brother movement in which the two principals were assisted by little Frank Webster. Another of their features that drew a big hand and several shouts of approval was the singing of the American flag and the demand on the part of president Wilson in the person of F. A. Raynor, that Huerta, who was impersonated by Mr. Brown, salute the flag. When the flag was unfurled the audience gave one shout of approval and followed it up with a round of applause that made the courtyard ring.

Quartet Since Ballade.

The Paso City quartet, composed of J. H. Phillips, Tom Crocker, J. B. Meagher and C. H. Armstrong, sang several up-to-date ballads.

Herbert Ward sang some songs of the day before yesterday. Dr. Frank Hughes gave an exhibition of modern dancing and E. M. Prater, here from Mexico, impersonated some El Paso Elks in their gambols during the old days in El Paso.

Eugene Harris told several stories and Frank Havers entertained with classical violin selections.

V. H. Stiles Presides.

Excited ruler V. H. Stiles presided, introducing the various actors and said that in the building of a new home the Elks should be sure to have an open court for summer entertainments such as this one.

The program was arranged by the entertainment committee composed of Charles H. Armstrong, Herbert Ward, W. H. Long, Max Miller and C. A. Brown.

It is expected that a series of entertainments will be given during the summer months and the committee is endeavoring to arrange a more elaborate program for the next entertainment. Several features, which it was intended should be included last Thursday night were omitted in order that they might be perfected before presentation.

AMUSEMENTS.

PERFECT MOTION PICTURES.
Did you ever wonder why the Wigwam's pictures seem so much steeper and brighter than those of other theaters? There is a reason. The Wigwam uses the very latest, best and safest projecting machines. It has lenses ground especially for it. The electrical current is transformed from alternating to direct by a mercury arc rectifier. The machines are motor driven, which gives them a steady motion instead of a jerk and last but not least the picture is seen on a "Day and Night" curtain, the best made. That is why you see the best pictures at the Wigwam theater.—Advertisement.

REBEL REPRESENTATIVE IN VICTOR FROM EAGLE PASS
H. M. Gray, who has been representing the "Constitutionalists" on the border for more than a year, arrived Monday morning from Eagle Pass, where he has been located since the battle of Ojinaga. Mr. Gray recently returned from a trip to Monclova and other interior towns and says that everything is quiet and orderly, that crops are being planted and that there have been no disturbances by the deserting "Colorados," who have not been seen since they were reported at Ciudad Juarez.

SALTILLO CHOSEN FOR PROVISIONAL CAPITAL OF MEXICO

Carranza to Set Up Government There and Assume Title of President.

Gen. Carranza will leave his headquarters in Durango within three or four days for Saltillo, where he will set up the provisional capital of the republic, according to official announcement made Monday morning by H. Perez Abreu, of the information office in Juarez.

The "first chief" of the revolution, on his arrival at Saltillo, will probably become the "provisional president" of the republic. That he will name a complete administration of cabinet officers is also announced. It is generally believed that among the prospective cabinet appointees are Luis Cabrera, Iglesias Calderon, Jose Vasconcelos and A. J. Pant.

That this action is taken to forestall any movement by the A. B. C. media-tors injurious to the "Constitutionalist" cause is the general opinion. It was known that Carranza did not intend setting up a provisional government in the full sense of the term until his armies had taken Mexico City, but the hurried action at Saltillo, which brought Huerta-Wilson complication brought about a condition that demanded quick action.

Saltillo, capital of Coahuila, and the birthplace of the present revolution, will probably remain the provisional capital of Mexico until after the rebel banner is planted in the national capital.

VILLA IN CHIHUAHUA;
